

Dr. Randall Johnson received his Doctorate of Musical Arts in 1992 in Choral Conducting from the University of Washington located in Seattle, Washington. Since then he has been on the music faculty of the University of Guam with primary responsibilities for solo and ensemble vocal music. He has been able to travel and perform in over 30 countries as a conductor, singer, saxophonist and guitarist. He has written choral pieces for many choirs and one of his UOG a cappella choirs, "Native Tongues," received a contract to record three CDs for King Records of Japan.

Randolph C. Stenson is on the music faculty at St. Mary's International School in Tokyo, Japan, where he conducts the St. Mary's Men's Choir, Varsity Male Ensemble, and International Show Choir. With more than twenty years experience in developing male ensembles, his groups have gained international recognition, winning top honors and awards at competitions and festivals in Japan and abroad.

Mr. Stenson is a graduate of Concordia College in Moorehead, Minnesota where he studied and sang under Paul J. Christiansen and Larry L. Flemming. Additionally, he has continued choral studies through master classes with Rodney Eichenberger. His choirs have been repeatedly selected for performances at ACDA regional and national events.
